ABOUT US

The Story of SSCC: Promoting Caribbean Culture and Education in Randolph and the South Shore

In the year 2020, SSCC was established as a non-entity, and later in 2023, it officially became a non-profit. Our mission is to promote social and educational opportunities for individuals of all ages, while raising awareness of Caribbean culture in Randolph and the South Shore.

We aim to accomplish this by:

- 1. Securing funding for social and educational programs that will benefit both youth and adults.
- 2. Establishing an educational fund and providing scholarships to deserving students who are interested in pursuing higher education.
- 3. Providing mentorship and leadership coaching to young people in the community.

IMPACT

COMMUNITY EVENTS

We will continue to promote community engagement and the sharing of different cultures through the various events held.

COMING OF AGE PROGRAM

Our goal is to reach X% of students annually. We expect to scale the program in 2024 and beyond.

Scholarships

Make multiple scholarships available to students so that they have the financial assistance needed.

To also encourage hard work ethics, leadership, and community

Assisting the Community: Our Methods and Mission

Our organization is supported by small grants from local sources, but the majority of our revenue comes from donations and fundraising.

Dedicated volunteers also aid in achieving our goals and furthering our mission.

We prioritize promoting Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion within the community. Through our Annual Events, we encourage engagement from individuals of various backgrounds. These events foster immersion into multicultural activities and programs, encouraging everyone to learn more about their neighbors. As a highly diverse community, Randolph values this interaction and the connections it brings.

SSCC

The Southshore Caribbean Connection Organization (SSCC) is based in Randolph, Massachusetts and serves those living in the town of Randolph and neighboring communities.

Primary Programs

- Caribbean American Heritage Month
- Coming of Age Program
- Scholarships

We offer scholarships to High School Seniors

100% of High School Seniors in the Town of Randolph are eligible to apply based on the scholarship requirements.

In 2023, we offered four (4) scholarships to honor the late counselor Kenrick Clifton who served the town of Randolph. We will continue providing scholarships annually.

We empower young people

We host the Coming of Age Program that help youth in Randolph ages 12 to 13 understand their self-worth and expose them to the opportunities available to reach their full potential.

Research shows that students who are mentored and encouraged have a high rate of success.
